A Tahitian priest will conduct the ceremony along with a traditional musician. We symbolically use mother-ocean water and our sacred conch shell to purify your union. A Tifai fai, a polynesian wedding quilt, will be wrapped around you to symbolize your union.

After the ceremony, a bottle of French champagne and a wedding cake will be delivered to your bungalow for you to enjoy.

The Traditional Ceremony is our grand Tahitian wedding. A musician will escort you to the Priest who will celebrate your union along with a traditional band.

After the priest purified you with pure sea water, you will be wrapped in a Tifaifai, the Polynesian wedding quilt, in the royal traditional way. As the ceremony ends, polynesian dancers will perform to celebrate your union.

While the celebration goes on, a bottle of French champagne and your wedding cake will be delivered to your bungalow for you to enjoy after the ceremony, with a romantic setup of flowers on your bed.

Renewal of Vows Ceremony

The ceremony takes place on the resort beach
Duration : 10 minutes

Make your dreams come true with our Renewal of Vows Ceremony, which takes place on our white-sand beach.

For this romantic celebration, a Polynesian priest will be in charge of the ceremony, accompanied by a local musician. The priest will use holy sea-water to purify you and bless your union. Following our local traditions, you will be wrapped in a Tifaifai, the traditional Polynesian wedding quilt. During the ceremony, a photograph will immortalize this magical moment.

As the ceremony reaches its end, you will receive your wedding certificate made of Tapa.

The magic will continue back in your bungalow, where a bottle of French Champagne and a wedding cake will be prepared for you to enjoy.
