World of Weddings

You dream it and we will make it happen.

A beautiful wedding ceremony or renewal of vows
in one of the most romantic places on earth
at the InterContinental® Moorea Resort & Spa.

Our experienced team will make one of your most treasured dreams come true.

We will plan with you a traditional Polynesian wedding with music and colorful dances
that will make the occasion unforgettable.

The ceremony can be set in our beautiful gardens,
or on the beach looking out to the turquoise lagoon.

This unique experience is planned
as the sun is setting behind a flowery decoration,
the scene is set for a festive, intimate, celebration
with the essence of the islands that will be uniquely yours.

Let us plan the magic for you.

Wedding Ceremonies

Polynesian Celebration

Duration : 10 minutes.

In the privacy of their room, the couple will prepare together for the special event. A hostess will join them and escort the couple to the ceremony grounds, which has been decorated with flowers following the Polynesian tradition.

They will be welcomed by the master of ceremony. As per tradition, the couple will be baptized with their Tahitian name and exchange beautiful flower leis and crowns as a symbol of their vows.

They will be covered with the traditional Tifai fai (Tahitian wedding quilt) before being blessed with sacred Auti leaves and pure coconut water.

THE CEREMONY INCLUDES :

- Master of ceremony
- Two flowers leis and flowers crowns
- A bouquet of flowers for the bride
- A Tifai fai (on loan)
- A wedding certificate

Legal Wedding

Duration : 10 minutes.

If you are planning to become legally married in Moorea, please ensure you meet the following conditions:

- both spouses must be at least 18 years old
- not be already married in France or overseas
- the spouses must not have a relationship in direct lineage (i.e. marriages between ascendants, descendants and allies in the same lineage, between brother and sister in the collateral lineage and between uncle and niece or aunt and nephew are prohibited)
- not to be of French nationality
- not hold resident status in France or its territories
- both spouses must be physically present during the marriage ceremony to give their consent
- the bride and the groom should each choose witnesses – at least one each, but no more than two, who are 18 years of age and over
- a translator/interpreter is present at the ceremony.

THE CEREMONY INCLUDES :

- Paperwork assistance
- Coordinator for the wedding day
- Two witnesses
- Translator
- Flower bouquet for the bride
- Round trip ground transfer to the town hall (for 2-4 persons)

Renewal of Vows Ceremony

Duration : 20 minutes.

In the privacy of their room, the couple will prepare together for the special event.

A hostess and a vahine dancer will escort them to the ceremony grounds, which has been decorated with flowers following the Polynesian tradition. To the sound of the guitar and ukulele, they will be welcomed by the master of ceremony and two musicians.

As per tradition, the renewal of the vows proceeds in Tahitian, the couple will be baptized with their Tahitian names and exchange beautiful flower leis and crowns as a symbol of their vows. They will be covered with the Tifai fai (traditional Tahitian wedding quilt) before being blessed with sacred Auti leaves and pure coconut water. The ceremony will end to the sound of Aparima dance performed by the vahine dancer, symbolizing their renewed joy.

THE CEREMONY INCLUDES :

- Master of ceremony
- Two pareos
- A vahine dancer and two musicians
- Two flowers leis and flowers crowns
- A bouquet of flowers for the bride
- A Tifaifai (on loan)
- A wedding certificate
- Two coconut punch cocktails

Traditional Polynesian Wedding

Duration : 25 minutes.

As per the renewal of vows, the ceremony will take place on the beach, specially decorated with flowers following the Polynesian tradition. The couple will be first separated to don the traditional outfits before being reunited.

The bride will be escorted by a vahine to the beach where she awaits the groom who will join her led by a Polynesian piroguier. The master of ceremony will unite the couple and they will exchange beautiful flower leis and crowns as a symbol of their vows. They will be then baptized with their Tahitian names and given a marriage certificate whilst being covered by the traditional Tifai fai (Tahitian wedding quilt). They will be blessed with sacred Auti leaves and pure coconut water.

The ceremony will end with dances and songs celebrating the new couple's joy. The couple will return to their room where a flowered bed, a chilled bottle of French Champagne and canapés await them.

THE CEREMONY INCLUDES :

- Master of ceremony with eight to ten singers, dancers and musicians
- Traditional costumes (on loan)
- Two pareos
- Two flowers leis and flowers crowns
- A bouquet of flowers for the bride
- A Tifaifai (on loan)
- A wedding certificate
- Two coconut punch cocktails

IN THE ROOM AFTER THE CEREMONY :

- A bottle of French Champagne on ice and canapés
- An arrangement of tropical flowers on the bed
